SEA LION IN FORM AGAIN.

A gloomy, dark day, with the haze and smoke lying low, failed to deter the race-goers and the attendance at Harlem was the average one. The track was not only deep, but sloppy, the rain of the forenoon having made a lake of the course. It did not seem as if "smart people" could guess how the horses would perform as should a handicapper have as many kinds of track on his list as did the late esteemed local jewelry man, still he would be in a quandary as here was presented a new condition of soil. The management is most unfortunate as it will take days after the rain ceases to get the Harlem track into anything like record breaking condition, and then the season will be too far advanced to give the great mare, Imp, a chance to set a new mark. A drizzling rain fell the greater part of the afternoon.

Sixteen regular and two field bookmakers posted the odds of 10 to 1 Andes for the first race. This colt ran much better than on Monday last, when, weighted relatively with Canace as yesterday, he finished behind her, for now as then he got off flying but here failed to stop as then, and won the race away off. Rio Chico was second on the turn, but "Skeets" Martin on Canace headed Sink's colt for a time, only to fail in the run home and finish fourth. McNickle usually rides Canace but it was thought Martin could ride her better which proved to be a wrong way of figuring. Rio Chico, coming on next the inside rail, was easily second from Miss Marks, who got the worst of a straggling start. Facade, a strong t.p., was well behind Miss Marks and the rear was brought up by Scatcohen and Iris. There was considerable talk about Andes. Certain it is that he was favorite on Monday and a long shot on Thursday and failed to stop at a longer distance.

Everybody thought that Jolly Roger would win and he did, although J. Reiff was driving him hard at the last sixteenth to beat Eva Rice, who led nearly all the way. Foxnette was second to Eva Rice until the middle of the upper turn, but died away and was beaten in a hard fight by Nannie L's Sister. No others were dangerous. The bookmakers "took a chance" against so slow a beginner as Jolly Roger and Ed Austin laid 3 to 5 place for a considerable amount. The favorite was in the ruck headed by Barrisso on the far turn, but once on his stride he "ate the others up."

It was "2 to 1 take your pick Falomacita, Judge Tarvin and Sea Lion" at the opening of the betting on the third race, but Falomacita was backed as low as 3 to 2, while Sea Lion advanced to 3 to 1. A play on the latter at post time knocked the odds back one half point and sent the favorite to 2 to 1. Leo Mayer "threw away some money," as he said, on Nora Ives and this cut her best price in two. She ran "absolutely." Rival Dare broke up two starts and finally got away in the rear. Sea Lion jumped to the front and was not headed, winning with considerable left by two lengths from Falomacita, she being third to Judge Tarvin (who got third mcnsey) until the last eighth. Mountain Dew, many lengths away, headed the rest of the division.

Now came up a tough proposition. The best horses in the fourth race cannot run in the mud, two of the others carried overweight, and Double Dummy was handicapped with supposedly the poorest jockey. So the play was a general one, the bookies taking part and making little better than a "rounder." Newsgatherer went off flying and had four lengths over Double Dummy entering the backstretch, Cherry Leaf third, others close up. Double Dummy had Newsgatherer beaten at the far turn, but here Basquil began his run, and collaring

Double Dummy a sixteenth inside the straight, ran head and head for a piece, then showed in front by a neck at the betting ring. But Rutter was whipping the leader (holding the outside position), while Hothersall hung on for dear life to his horse's head. Close in Double Dummy responded to one crack of the whip (Rutter was trying to ride so close that his rival's game would be blocked), and his number went up. Doctor Sheppard, third, was beaten off.

Don't Skip Me, off in front of a close bunch at the first attempt, was not headed in the fifth race and won easily. Silver Set ran her close for five-eighths. Coral was third to the last sixteenth, where Heigh Ho and Locust Blossom got up, and in a fine finish the latter secured third money.

Hothersall was posted to ride Elidad, and opening at 9 to 5 the horse was backed down to 3 to 2, when the announcement came "Put Rutter on Elidad." Then the price was even money, afterwards 13 to 10. Soon the bell rang and all was confusion in the betting ring. Sweeney came rushing in and yelled, "Put H. Martin on Elidad; five pounds over," and the post price was 8 to 5, 3 to 5, 3 to 10. Glenmoyne led to near the half mile ground, Lucid second. Here Elidad shot by and led into the homestretch by twenty lengths as he was eased up. George Lee was within four lengths of him at the finish. In a rousing finish Gold Band just beat Glenmoyne and Lucid for the third money. The start was a perfect one. Colonel Clark is nothing if not original, but the change of jockeys, it is said, was at the suggestion of Elidad's owner, who had been on pins and needles all day, fearing Hothersall could not ride the horse. Then, as Rutter could not make the weight, "Skeets" was called into play. Any boy could have won on the horse and the change was a hard blow to Hothersall, who had won by such nice work on Double Dummy.

James Carlisle, ex-State Treasurer of Colorado, and a well known and deservedly popular owner of racehorses, is in town for a visit of thirty days. Mr. Carlisle has of late given his attention to his stock interests in the southern part of Colorado, and now, although "getting along" in years, is of the same sunny disposition as always.

Since the fencing off of the "foreign book end" of the betting ring the entries for the races of the following day are posted on a big blackboard near the stairway leading to the grandstand.

It is rumored that in the event of racing in Indiana W. E. Applegate will there manage the syndicate system of bookmaking.

CALIFORNIA RACING.

Secretary Milroy has issued the program book for the first two weeks of racing to be conducted by the California Jockey Club over the Oakland track. It is significant of the near approach of the days in which active interest in the sport of sports will center solely about the performances of the fleet-footed ones over the San Francisco and New Orleans tracks. The program is made up on the basis of five races daily, with purses ranging from $350 to $500. Four stakes are to be run off during the two weeks. With their entries they are as follows:

Saturday, October 29.—The Opening Handicap, $1,250. For all ages. One mile. Entries: La Goleta, San Venado, Colonel Wheeler, Napamex, Recreation, Marplot, Rosormonde, Olinthus, Osculation, Buckwa, Cromwell, Bonnie Ione, Rosinante, Moringa, Grady, Hohenzollern, Wheel of Fortune, Jennie Reid, George Keene, Ben Hadad, Hurly Burly, Rubicon, Rainier, Judge Denny, Ostler Joe, Satsuma,

Little Alarm, Morinel, Morellito, Highland Ball. Saturday, November 5.—The California Maiden Stakes, $1,000. For 2-year-olds. Six furlongs. Thursday, November 10.—The Naglee Selling Stakes, $1,250. For 3-year-olds and upwards. Seven furlongs. Entries: Ring Master, San Venado, La Goleta, Major Cook, Libertine, Colonel Wheeler, Napamex, Recreation, Marplot, Colonel Dan, Bellicosco, Buckwa, Cromwell, Peixotto, Bonnie Ione, Rosinante, Bernardino, Moringa, Zarro, The Swain, Etta H., Hohenzollern, Ben Hadad, Hurly Burly, Fonsovanah, Darechota, Chihuahua, Rubicon, Grandezia, San Mateo, Lord Marmion, Satsuma, Little Alarm, Whitcomb, Valenciennes, George Miller, Highland Ball, Hamilton II., St. Lee.

Saturday, November 12.—The Burlingame Stakes, $1,250. For all ages. One mile. Entries: Rey del Rio, La Goleta, La Maroma, General Arthur, Olinthus, Humidity, Obsidian, Recreation, Napamex, Marplot, Colonel Wheeler, Rosormonde, Geyser, The Swain, Hohenzollern, Hohenzollern, Espionage, George Keene, Hurly Burly, Ben Hadad, Toluca, Rubicon, Storm King, Racio, Lord Marmion, Rainier, The Last, Morellito, Morinel, Los Prietos, Rio Honda.

ETHELBERT'S NEW OWNER.

The turf has received a number of powerful new acquisitions this year, most notable of which perhaps have been the advent of Mr. William C. Whitney and ex-Corporation Counsel W. H. Clark among the lists of prominent owners. It now appears to be reasonably certain that Mr. Perry Belmont intends to follow the example so worthily set by Mr. Whitney and Mr. Clark.

That is to say, Mr. Belmont is again getting together a string of thoroughbreds, and high class ones, too. It is not his first appearance in racing. A few years ago he owned that sterling performer Magian, and a number of other horses. Magian, however, broke down and was retired to the stud, and the remainder of Mr. Belmont's string, not being of quite the calibre that suited his fancy, were disposed of.

Now Mr. Belmont is beginning all over again, and in the right way. He was the real purchaser of Mr. Galway's Ethelbert at the Morris Park sale a few days ago, when that colt was knocked down to the bid of A. J. Joyner for $11,600. It transpires also that he was the actual buyer of John E. Madden's Frohsinn, recently sold to Joyner for $3,500. Joyner formerly trained for Mr. Belmont, and will probably have charge of this new lot of horses that he is getting together.

The decision of Mr. Belmont to re-enter upon a turf career is most encouraging. Men of the calibre of himself, Mr. Whitney and Mr. Clark are just the sort that are needed in racing. It is to be hoped that he may not stop at his recent purchases, but that he will continue until he has collected together a stable of high class racers. He has certainly made a good beginning in Ethelbert and Frohsinn, as these 2-year-olds are among the best of the year.—Morning Telegraph.

BIG PRICES FOR RACERS.

NEW YORK, N. Y., October 20.—At the Morris Park sale of racehorses in training today the principal prices realized were as follows: Kentucky Colonel, A. H. & D. H. Morris, $10,000; Sydney Paget and Julius Fleischmann were the contending bidders.

Black Venus, Sydney Paget	7,500
Satin Slipper, M. F. Dwyer	4,100
King Barleycorn, E. Heffner	3,700
Rhineland, J. W. Rogers	3,800
Sailor King, J. J. McCafferty	4,800
Kinnikinnick, T. J. Healy	3,000
Greatland, M. F. Dwyer	2,600

GLENELG.

The sale of the Glenelg yearlings at Harlem a few days ago cannot but serve to impress one with the thought of what a wonderfully stout and virile horse this great son of Citadel was. When he died last November Glenelg was thirty-one years old, yet his now yearlings will make their mark in the 2-year-old contests of 1899, and on Mr. Tyree Bate's farm there are now a number of Glenelg weanlings, one being a grand bay colt from Lida C., the dam of The Reaper.

Few horses imported from England have left a deeper or stronger impression on American thoroughbred breeding interests than Glenelg. The stout blood of Citadel, Kingston, and the exceedingly game and staying Defence that flowed in potent current through his veins have been of incalculable value. Look at this brilliant galaxy of his sons and daughters: Monitor, Firenze, Dry Monopole, Los Angeles, Little Minch, Gleaner, Louisette, Strathspey, Mintzer, Ferida, Bertha, Aella, Dan Sparling, Tristan, Post Guard, Ada Glenn, Danicheff, Grissette, Insolence, Herbert, Ferona, Grenadier, Preciosa, She, Sir Joseph, Heel and Toe, Kittie Clark, Judith, Minnock, Mirth, Cammie F. To look at these names is to recall the fact that in the course of their careers they at one time or another placed almost every honor possible to be won on the American turf to his credit as a sire.

It is evident that the influence of the potent blood of Glenelg must long be recognized and prized by the breeders of this country. That his daughters have produced such great race horses as Volante, Santiago, Troubadour, Santa Anna, Bermuda, Jennie June, Dagonet, Kaloolah, Marie Stuart, Estrella, La Sylphide, Protection, Can Can, Ballarat, Chaos and Take Notice is amply sufficient to insure this. His son, Post Guard, has already made his mark as a sire and such good horses as Tristan, Dry Monopole and Little Minch can hardly fail to do so when mated with their properly selected cross.

Glenelg was a model racehorse. He was suited by any and all kinds and conditions of racetracks and could sprint six furlongs or stay four miles with the best of his day. And as he was so were, as a rule, his sons and daughters. Even such brilliant sprinters as Little Minch and Gleaner showed when asked the question that they were just as ready to go the long route as they were to do a dazzling five furlongs. And when shall we again see such a mare as the unequalled Firenze?

Winner—B. c. by Helicon—Jess.
Post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second and third were driving. Andes ran away from his field. He was a good colt today and ran a far better race than at his last previous start. Holden let the colt go wide on the stretch turn, but he had speed to loan and the further they went the further he won. Rio Chico runs consistently in the mud. He had abundant speed, but where near enough to contend with Andes. Miss Marks had no chance from where she was away. She ran a dead game race and would have been second in a few more strides. This was to be a hard luck filly. Canace tired badly the last sixteenth. Facade was all tangled up the start and had a generally rough journey. The field was badly strung out at the finish.
Scratched—Doremus, 103; Prince Harry, 110; Banish, 102.
Andes, place, 3 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Rio Chico, place, 3 to 1; show, 3 to 2. Miss Marks, show, 6 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Order—Happy Sally II.
Off at first break to a good start. Won under a drive, but with something left; second hand held; third and fourth driving to the limit. Jolly Roger was far the best. He was lucky in not getting shut off on the first turn and always had a clear path. This colt is a slow beginner and in the first three furlongs dropped steadily back. After that, though, he got on his stride and passed horses like a flash. At the head of the stretch it was evident he would win, but little effort took no chances and whipped him all the last quarter. Eva Rice had a lot of speed and in a good race. She far outclassed those behind her. It was rumored she did not like the mud, but that is what made her price. Nannie L's Sister ran an improved race. She likes this kind of thing and will do to watch. Overland ran gamely throughout. He made up a lot of ground in the last three furlongs. Foxnette stopped badly.
Overweights—Storm Queen, 2 1/2 pounds.
Jolly Roger, place, 1 to 2; show, 1 to 4. Eva Rice, place, 13 to 10; show, 3 to 5. Nannie L's Sister, show, 3 to 1.

Winner—B. c. by Deceiver—Sea View.
Post 7 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly; the next two were doing their best. Sea Lion was a good colt to-day. He had plenty of speed, and stamina enough to carry it along. This colt has been off, but seems now to be back in his best form again. Rutter hit him a few times with his whip in the stretch, but that was not necessary. Falomacita ran a good race from where he got off. The break was a bad one for her. Judge Tarvin was prominent in all breakaways and finally got away flying. He had no excuses. Mountain Dew will win in lower class company. The race was always between the first three.
Overweights—Nora Ives, 2 pounds.
Sea Lion, place, 4 to 5. Falomacita, place, 3 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Judge Tarvin, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. g. by Alarm or Pardee—Meadow Lark.
Off at first break to a good start. Won driving to the limit. Basquil was the best and should have won. Rutter threw the race away on him. He rode to perfection to the last eighth, and then becoming careless let Hothersall on Double Dummy steal a march on him. It was a rank piece of carelessness. Double Dummy is an honest performer. He is best in the mud but runs a good race no matter what the condition of the track may be. He hung on gamely and Hothersall never gave up riding. Dr. Sheppard did not like the going. It was very deep and the weight anchored him. Newgatherer showed a flash of speed. He stopped to a walk, though, after going about five furlongs. Cherry Leaf could do nothing in the going.
Overweights—Basquil, 3 pounds; Newgatherer, 2.
Double Dummy, place, 3 to 2; show, 1 to 2. Basquil, place, even.

154 FIFTH RACE—3-4 Mile. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. Purse $400; value to winner $340; $10 entrance; $99 to second; $41 to third.

Winner—B. f. by Al Farrow—Lady Lyon.
Off at first break to a good start. Won handily; second, third and fourth were driving. Don't Skip Me revealed in the going. She raced Silver Set into submission in the first five furlongs and then came on as she pleased. She was well played. Silver Set had all of her speed and ran right to the notch. She is a useful racer. Locust Blossom, from a poor beginning, ran a clever race. She displayed great gameness through the stretch. Heigh Ho ran one of her bad races. She is a hard filly to keep a line on. Coralis had some speed, but not much.
Don't Skip Me, place, 4 to 5. Silver Set, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Locust Blossom, show, 1 to 1.

Winner—B. c. by Hayden Edwards—Fannie Lyons.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won with something left; the next three were driving hard. Elidad was best as the race was run and showed it. There was a general mixup on the first turn and to save an accident, Martin was obliged to pull to the extreme outside. By going so he lost a lot of ground. The horse, though, moved up like a flash down the backstretch and on passing the half mile post, started to part company with the field. He was tiring at the end. George Lee ran a corking good race. He was slow to begin, but finished like a lion. In the melee on the first turn Lucid was knocked to his knees and almost went down. Considering this, his race was good. Glenmoynne seems to be a thing of the past. Hothersall was scheduled to ride Elidad. The judges took him down and substituted Rutter. The latter was six pounds over and could not ride. H. Martin was then put up.
Scratched—Refugee, 103; Hosi, 95; Penso Roso, 90; Molo, 108; Connie Lee, 99; Pinar del Rio, 95.
Overweights—Glenmoynne, 4 pounds; George Lee, 2 1/2; Elidad, 5.
Elidad, place, 3 to 5; show, 3 to 10. George Lee, place, 8 to 5; show, 7 to 10. Gold Band, show, 6 to 5.

Off at first break to a good start. Won easily; second cleverly. Carlotta C. outclassed her company and made a show of them. Merode closed a big gap. The Naulahka stopped to nothing when pinched. Purse Proud seems to be of no present account. Sister Alice ran well. This race should do her good.

Winner—Ch. c. by Blue Eyes—Mis-ive.

Start fair. Won easily. Greatland was easily best and the going to his liking. Ben Viking is best on a fast track but closed like a flash. He is very good now and of fairly good class. Tender is uncertain and ordinary. Ned Wickes is best over a route and a fast track. The others are very ordinary.

Winner—Ch. c. by Farandole—Blessing.

Start good. Won driving. Banastar bore out in the stretch but was the best and is a great colt in such going. Handball's headstall slipped, but he closed very strong under difficulties swerving all over the stretch. He is very good. Sand is seemingly does stay and prefers a fast track. Bangle dislikes sticky going, but ran well. Martha II. is in poor form.

Scratched—George Keene, 122; St. Callatine, 106; Sailor King, 117; Swiftmas, 113; Whistling Con, 108; Danforth, 103; Sensational, 89.

Winner—B. c. by Onondaga—Bessie Hinckley.

Start fair. Won driving. George Keene was easily the best. The going was just to his liking. Hilee showed remarkably good form and should have won. It was a very weak finish, but he got a flying start and was allowed to steal a long lead. Irish Reel closed strong and ran a wonderul race at the weights. She prefers a fast track. White Frost ran well, but the track was against her. Bendoran was off badly and ran a bad race.

Scratched—Algol, 137; Macy, 127; St. Callatine, 114; Handball, 129; Sanders, 127; Swiftmas, 127; Don d'Oro, 126; Toluca, 112; Blarneystone, 107.

Winner—Br. c. by Meddler—Sheboygan.

Start fair. Won handily. Meddlesome was lucky, liked the going and was very fit. He is of little account on a fast track. Lady Exile was in her element and closed very strong. Neuberger may do the first time a capable jockey rides him. Ordeal performed very badly. Imitation is a bad one. The others are worse.

Scratched—Topbet, 92.
